TELEGRAPHIC

Special to the APPEAL

The Comstock Solid for Silver

Virginia, Nov. 7.—The campaign for free silver closed tonight on the Comstock with the grandest meeting ever held here. Senator Stewart struck the final blow in a speech that at every sentence received the approval of the audience. At the close the whole audience rose in enthusiasm to cheer the leader of the Silver party. The Comstock sends assurances of an overwhelming victory for the Silver cause at the polls.

Jas. H. Kinkead,
Chairman Co. Central Com.

DeYoung Confident.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 7.—H. M. DeYoung is confident of being the next Senator from California. He said tonight if the Republicans lose every legislator in San Francisco he would still have enough votes in the State out side of this city to elect him.

Hurrah for Weaver.

New York, Nov. 7.—The People's committee is greatly elated over the News from Oregon and other Western States. They claim Weaver will have 45 votes in the Electoral College.

Trouble Looked For.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Serious trouble is expected at the polls in this city tomorrow. Gangs of toughs appointed by saloon bosses Kelley and Crimmins are organizing tonight to capture and control all election booths in this city.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle.

Clothing and Furnishing Goods.

John Henderson, representing Wanamaker & Brown of Philadelphia the largest clothing and merchant tailoring house in America will be at the Arlington Nov. 13 and 14, and every two weeks thereafter with a line of Fall and Winter goods. Don't miss this opportunity of getting your clothing for one-half the usual price. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock.

Mrs. Seofield is now manufacturing tomatoes by her own hand at her candy store opposite the Depot, where they will be retailed or made to order. All orders filled on short notice. They are to be had on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday only.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

THE LARGEST AND BEST OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Stirring Speeches By Dr. Bergstein and T. V. Julien.

Last night's meeting was the largest of the campaign. The audience jammed the house, filled the aisles and packed the stage. A hundred people were turned away and every mention of silver was received with a roar of applause from the immense audience.

The speeches of Bergstein and Julien did up the gold ring in fine shape and Dr. Winnie described the chicanery that resulted in his being put off the county ticket.

The editor of the APPEAL closed the meeting with a short speech.

Attention Laboring Men.

John W. Hayes, the Secretary of the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor, stamps as a lie the statement that T. V. Powderly will support Harrison. Powderly was the leader and Hayes Secretary of the Omaha Convention. The following telegram explains itself:

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 6.

M. D. Noteware, Secretary of the Silver Party Committee, Carson:—The press reports of Powderly going to support Harrison are false. He has been working and talking for Weaver since the Omaha Convention and will vote for him on Tuesday. Pay no attention to newspaper reports; they are sent out to help a losing cause. I have been away, or would have answered your wire of the 26th.

Jno. W. Hayes,
General Sec. Knights Labor.

More Slick Work.

Yesterday the case of Ormsby county vs. Hy Doane charged with threatening the life of John G. Fox, who asked that he be bound over to keep the peace. Tremnor Coffey appeared as his attorney and asked for a postponement of the case until Wednesday (the day after election; see!) Of course the accommodating District Attorney said he was perfectly willing to let the case go over and the Justice of the Peace was also quite willing to accommodate Mr. Coffey.

Mr. Fox, who had all his witnesses ready, could not then be given an opportunity to go to trial and so the case went over until after election day. The way the game was worked was a source of general adverse criticism on the street and made a few more votes for the silver ticket.

A Pleasant Innovation.

An agreeable innovation introduced in the campaign by Senator Stewart, has been the cornet playing of Miss Pearl Noble of Alameda. Her tones have a sweetness and purity that entranced every audience that listened to her, and won hearty applause whenever she played. The little lady has gained a host of personal friends everywhere.

Her father, Mr. Noble of Alameda, is a warm personal friend of Senator Stewart, and sent his daughter up to help in the fight. While in this city she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paris Ellis at the Stewart mansion.

Aube's Capacity.

Mr. Doane is denouncing all who vote for Aube as "D—n frog eaters" and tells people that Mr. Aube lacks the educational capacity for the office.

Mr. Aube is one of the best educated men in this city. He speaks four languages and writes three. Any one who wishes to investigate his work has but to see the books kept by him as Financial Secretary of the Workingmen Order of this city. A better set of books are not to be found in this city and his hand writing is like copper plate.

MARRIED.

In Virginia City Nov. 6th by Rev. G. R. Davis at the residence of the bride, Geo. W. Cowing and Miss May Ripplingham.

The contracting parties are both well known here, and have any amount of friends. The APPEAL congratulates them both and acknowledges the receipt of cake and wine.

The News accuses the APPEAL of having such a bad reputation for veracity that it was obliged to publish affidavits to substantiate its charges.

No one ever questioned our statements but the ring.

The affidavits only confirmed the general idea the public had of the crowd we lashed.

"How much is there in it for me?"

"ME AND HY."

An Unsuccessful Attempt to Squeeze Louis Epstein.

During the veteran encampment in this city on July 4th the committee having charge of the feeding of the visiting soldiers, arranged to have the various restaurants and hotels furnish food at the rate of three meals for a half.

Mr. Summerfield was a very active man on the committee and when arranging and attending to this business called on Mr. Louis Epstein the restaurant keeper and asked him if he wanted his name on the list of restaurants furnishing three meals for 50 cents and showed him a list of the other restaurants that had agreed to the proposition, in order to help out in the celebration.

The list contained the names of the Ormsby, the Briggs, the Excelsior, Curce's Hotel, Taylor's restaurant and Thompson's restaurant. Mr. Epstein when asked if he wanted his name on the list to be printed of the restaurant said: "Certainly I will come in with the balance." "Where do me and Hy Doane come in?" was the next question from Mr. Summerfield as he paused and looked at Mr. Epstein.

"When I give meals at that rate I do not clear anything worth mentioning and I will not pay you fellows a d—n cent. If that don't suit you you can take my name off the list." "All right" was the reply. "It don't go on."

After this conversation Mr. Epstein called on some of the committee, stated the whole business and got his name on the list. It is not necessary to publish an affidavit in the case as the facts are well known to scores of people. During the celebration Doane and Summerfield in order to get even on Epstein busied themselves keeping people away from the restaurant and he only took in $23.

Two Appeals.

I would endeavor to touch the hearts of those who—though well fed and warmly clad—care not a straw for miners on the Comstock and the Base Range, who may find it necessary to starve or freeze to death while we in Ormsby county are sitting with our arms folded over well filled paunches talking silver but voting gold.

The pick and shovel went keep the wolf from the door. The knife will. They will use the former tools to undermine our State Prison. The knife will be put to the Harrison Legislators whom they may find in the Assembly.

Let me appeal to the pocket-books of our taxpayers, if they be softer than their hearts. We want to preserve our State institutions.

Let us put three men in the Assembly who are brothers of the silver leaguers from every other county in the State. They will have influence and will protect us.

COMMON SENSE.

A Filthy Mess.

Reliable men in this county are ready to make affidavit that the inmates of the Poor Farm are covered with vermin, and one man has not had a change of underclothes for ten weeks. Vote for Silver Commissioners and wash this crowd up.

Notice!

There will be a Chrysanthemum and Fan Tea at the residence of Mrs. D. A. Bender, on Saturday next between the hours of 3 and 10 P. M. All are most cordially invited.

The members of the county ring wore long faces yesterday. They saw that their ticket was doomed to be buried under an avalanche of public indignation to-day and they spent their time reading the hand writings on the wall and cursing the MORNING APPEAL for exposing their crookedness.

Candidates should pay no attention to the lying reports circulated by the ring that candidates on the Silver ticket are being traded off. It is an old trick of theirs to make a break in the ranks.

The Carson Guards through the APPEAL desire to acknowledge the receipt of a check of $50 from Stewart toward the new gymnasium.

For Sale—Horse, buckboard and harness in good condition. The animal is gentle and good for family use. Apply to Ed Vonderhyde.

CORROBORATIVE EVIDENCE.

What the Commissioners Thought of Mr. Doane.

Mr. John G. Fox, when he was struck by Hy. Doane for a commission for furnishing stationery for Ormsby county, found that the Board had passed an order giving Mr. Doane, the County Clerk, full power to order all supplies of stationery for the county.

Mr. Fox after his refusal to pay Mr. Doane the commission demanded, went to a member of the Board of County Commissioners and stated the facts to them as they had occurred.

That the Board fully believed Mr. Fox is evinced from the fact that at their next meeting, they rescinded the order and took the opportunity of levying any more commissions for county supplies out of Mr. Doane's hands.

At the time Mr. Doane was striking Mr. Fox for a commission, Doane owed him $400 for hardware and other supplies, furnished him when he was coiner of the Mint.

Mr. Fox attempted to attach his lien in satisfaction of the debt before it could become legally outlawed and found to his astonishment that the house did not belong to Doane at all, but was in another man's name.

He then sent the bill to the Merchant's Retail Commercial Agency and the claim when forwarded to the agency was sent to Doane and came back with the following endorsement on the back written in the fine Italian hand of the county clerk:

I am not aware that I am legally indebted to John G. Fox or any other person or persons in the sum within named. Respectfully,
WM. HY. DOANE.

This was written by Doane after he had used the goods purchased and given his note for the amount.

Although drawing a fat salary for years and doing a general jobbing and commission business in county, city and Indian School contracts, he never pays a debt that he can possibly avoid.

Friedenthal-Oleovich

In this city, November 6, 1892, at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. J. K. Levy, of Sacramento, Miss H. Oleovich of this city, to Mr. I. Friedenthal, of Denver Col.

The ceremony was attended by all the Jewish families of the city.

The bride was in her loveliest and showered with congratulations and costly wedding presents.

The groom is a leading merchant of Denver. The happy couple are now on their bridal tour, having left a large invoice of wine at the APPEAL office before starting.

No Republican Meeting

The attempt of the Republicans to hold a meeting in this city last evening was a flat failure, and had to be given up. The crowd was at the Opera House cheering en masse every time the name of Silver sounded. Last night's meeting sounded the death knell of the county ring.

Wall Street furnishes the money. Strother brings it to Nevada to use.

Who gets the benefit? Harrison Bartine and Woodburn.

What do the voters think of a few bolters who will take Wall Street money to secure the election of Assemblymen, Congressman and Senator?

Don't you believe that the Assemblymen, Congressman and Senator, chosen by Wall Street, will legislate for Wall street and not Ormsby county or Nevada?

The Stewart managers are offering to trade everything on the County ticket for votes for Logan, Reynolds and Folsom. Shun all such offers. Messrs. Republicans. Stand firm and victory is assured for the whole ticket.—Tribune.

The above is a lie out of whole cloth. There is no need in trading as the Silver party will elect their whole ticket.

The case of Wolcott vs. Watson involving the title to the Joanna mine in White Pine County, was decided in favor of the defendant by Judge Hawley in the U. S. Circuit Court this morning. Mrs. Wolcott will take the case to the Court of appeals at once. Her Attorneys say they will stay with the case to the end.

"Five dollars for me and five dollars for Hy." "Too d—d high" says the restaurant keeper.
